Memorial Day May 30th

At first Memorial Day was a day of memories; the graves of the brave men who gave their lives in the Civil War were decorated with flowers; a sign that a grateful people had not forgotten the supreme sacrifice these men made.

Then the day gradually became a popular day; games, sports, picnics, were more important than heroic memories. The original idea of the day was in danger of being lost.

Now we have come to a time when Memorial day can be consecrated anew; when we may look back with reverence upon the victories past and forward with courage and determination to a victorious future.

Let us make the day a time when we renew our declarations of loyalty to the great cause of which our country has always been the foremost champion---

The Cause of Human Liberty and Rights of Men.

We shall do our daily work, whatever it may be, with a better spirit, if we keep that idea before us.

Let no man be a slacker in these trying times; whether it be in the store, on the farm or at the front; lift the camouflage and let our true patriotism march squarely and fairly to the front with Uncle Sam's Victorious Armies.
